

Responding to a Review Request

Responding to a review request made by someone other than the person/carer whose plan it is

Responding to a review request made by the person/carer whose plan it is IMPORTANT: When making a decision about the need to review you must ensure that you consult with anyone that the person/carer has asked you to consult with and that you have regard for the views and wishes of the person/carer.