What can we help with?

Help you to stay healthy and well

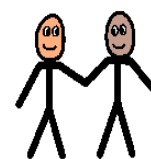

Help you if you go into hospital. And see you when you get out

Work with your GP to help them help you

We can help you if you get angry or hurt yourself or others

We can sometimes help with relationships and sexual health

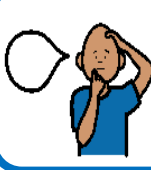

Help you to get to, and stay at, a healthy weight

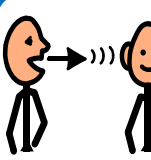

Help if you have problems eating or drinking

Give you advice on exercise and keeping active. Maybe join a group

Help if you or someone else is worried about your memory

Help you to communicate with other people

Help keep you comfortable by looking at how you sit and lie

Help if you have problems getting on with other people
