

Centre for Professional Practice

Practice Briefing Note 72

Title:	Key Changes to Child in Need Processes and Practice <ul style="list-style-type: none">• 10 Point Child in Need Guide• Child in Need Process Map• Effective Planning and Intervention for Children in Need – Good Practice Guidance• A Practitioner’s Guide to SMART Planning• Child in Need - Guide for Parents and Carers• Child in Need - Guide for Professionals
Effective From:	22 nd May 2020
Practice Note:	Key changes have been made to Child in Need (CIN) processes and practice. To support the workforce with understanding these changes, CPP have developed a 10 Point Child in Need Guide and Process Map; good practice guidance for effective Child in Need planning and intervention; a practitioner’s guide to SMART Planning, which includes examples of SMART Plans; and short guides for parents, carers, and professionals. These changes will be in place with immediate effect. All documents can be found in Dudley’s Practice Guidance on the CPP website – link. Please see below. <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. 10 Point Child in Need Guide2. Child in Need Process Map3. Effective Planning and Intervention for Children in Need – Good Practice Guidance4. A Practitioner’s Guide to SMART Planning5. Child in Need Guide for Parents and Carers6. Child in Need Guide for Professionals All guides and processes have been uploaded on to Dudley’s Practice Guidance.
Authorised by:	DLT

Date:	14 th May 2020
Review Date:	16 th August 2020
Reference No:	0072/2020/ CPP

