Managing Practice Learning for Social Work Students (Supervisors and Practice Educators)

This course aims to prepare Practice Educators and Practice Supervisors to work with UWE Bristol BSc (Hons) Social Work students undertaking both the 70 and 100 day placements. Most supervisors enrolling for this course will be working within the voluntary, independent & private sector, but some may also work within statutory teams too.

The course will enable you to:

- Gain information about practice learning and the Social Work Degree
- Understand the different roles and responsibilities when working with students in practice
- Prepare for working with a student, by:
 - Identifying learning opportunities in the workplace
 - Identifying the values that underpin practice
 - Identifying what you have to offer personally and professionally
- Develop an understanding of the supervisory process and the skills involved.
- Understand the assessment requirements and your role in this.
- Find out about support available to practice supervisors including use of UWE library facilities.
- Consider the role of service users and carers in practice learning.

Course Tutors:-

Kate Bramford, Senior Lecturer in Social Work

Holly Stockdale, Learning & Development Lead (Social Work) Somerset County Council

Lizzie Woollcott, Professional Social Work Educator Somerset County Council
