

KCC Discharge to Assess transfer of Funding Processes – V.1

Person has been in the Discharge to Assess bed for up to 6 weeks or over. Relevant assessments, Authorisation and Placement form (A&P), charging letter and practice assurance processes have been completed.

Will the person be remaining in the current placement/ service provision?

Yes

No

Has the 6 week D2A period been exceeded?

Is the cost of the placement appropriate to meet the persons level of need (guide price) or has a restricted search been agreed?

No

Yes

Yes

No

KCC funding and client contribution commences from the date the care and support plan is agreed.

Is a First/Third Party top-up applicable?

KCC funding and client contribution commences from the date the person moves to home of choice.
(D2A funding should remain in place until the person moves or the D2A period is exceeded)

KCC funding and client contribution commences from the date the 6 week D2A period ends.
This should be a chargeable Short Term Bed as it is an interim placement until placement of choice is identified.

No – First/Third Party Top up has been waived.

Yes

KCC funding and client contribution commences on the date the top-up waiver is agreed/authorised.

KCC funding and client contribution, including First/Third Party contribution, commences from the date the care and support plan is agreed.

NB: If the person has been in the Discharge to Assess bed for 6 weeks or more, relevant assessments have not been completed

AND

KCC have been given the relevant notice period that Care Act/RTT assessment is required,
Interim KCC funding will commence as a Short term assessment/non-chargeable bed until assessments are complete.