First Family Service - Birmingham

Is your child no longer with you or is there a chance this may happen?

Free advice and support for birth mothers, fathers & relatives

What is PAC-UK?

PAC-UK provides specialist therapy, advice, support, counselling and training for all affected by adoption and permanency.

PAC-UK helps thousands of people each year. Some of them are birth parents or other birth relatives, some are adoptive parents and some are adopted adults.

PAC-UK is a charity and is not part of social services or any government organisation.

- ✓ We know how traumatic losing a child can be.
- ✓ We know that you will always be family to your child.
- ✓ We aim to help you keep a child in the future if you want to.

PAC-UK Staff

PAC-UK's counsellors are professionally qualified in counselling/psychotherapy, psychology and/or social work and have a wide range of experience and training in all aspects of Birth Family support.

Counselling staff are supported by external professional supervisors and administrative staff.

First Family Service Action Line

PAC-UK's First Family Service has its own web page at www.pac-uk.org/firstfamily that provides you with more information on the services we offer.

Alternatively, call our confidential Advice Line 0113 230 2100 or email firstfamily@pac-uk.org and we will respond to your request at the earliest possible opportunity.

The PAC-UK Advice Line opening hours are listed on the opposite page.

PAC-UK's First Family Service can:

- ✓ Listen to your story and how you are feeling about your child's adoption.
- ✓ Explain the often confusing process of adoption and what that means for you and your child –now and in the future.
- ✓ Help write a letterbox letter. Most people find the first one particularly difficult.
- ✓ Help you to write a letter for your child for when they are older explaining what happened and how you feel about it.
- ✓ Let you know how other parents like yourself feel. We run friendly support groups in some areas.
- ✓ Look at the reasons your child was removed and what you can do to keep a future child if you want to.
- ✓ Meet with you in a convenient place and discuss what is most helpful to you. What you say is confidential.
