

Questions to support Mapping – Foster Carer Supervision

WHAT ARE WE WORRIED ABOUT?	WHAT IS WORKING WELL?	WHAT NEEDS TO HAPPEN?
What are your biggest struggles in looking after the children? How often is this happening? What makes this more likely to happen? What do you think the children would say that they are struggling with the most whilst living with you? How are these worries affecting you? The children? If your child's behaviour could talk, what do you think it would say? What do you think the children would say is making them behave in this way? Are there any other things going on for you that makes caring for the children harder? Is there anything that is making the issue harder to solve?	What are all of the ways that you are looking after the children and showing them that you care about them? What do you think the children would say about this if we asked them? What do you like / love most about the children? What makes you proud of the children? How are you helping them to succeed? What do you think the children say are the best things about living with you? If one of the children is having a bad day or struggling with something, how do you help them? Who is the first person that would notice if you were struggling? How do they help you? Who else in your life cares about the children? What makes these relationships good? Who would the children say that they like spending time with? How do you support this?	If you could change one thing to make things better, what would that be? What do you think the children would want to happen to make things better? Is there anything that they might want you to do differently? When you think about what has happened to the children before they came to live with you, what do you think might be the most helpful way to respond to them?

Scaling question: If 10 is that things are going really well and we're managing any tricky times and 0 is that things have completely broken down, where would you rate it?
