5. CHILD IMPACT ANALYSIS

Using numbered paragraphs, consider each child separately with their own analysis (5.1, 5.2, 5.3).

- In considering the impact upon the child you will need to reference relevant welfare considerations that relate to the child using these headings:
 - The wishes and feelings of the child concerned, including the weight to be attributed to them in the context of the issues in the case.
 - The child's particular physical, emotional and educational needs
 - The likely effect on the child if circumstances changed as a result of the court's decision.
 - The child's age, background and any other characteristics which will be relevant to the court's decision.
 - Any harm the child has suffered or may be at risk of suffering.
- Consider analysis of the impact for each child of:
 - Any evidence-based risk and strengths identified.
 - Their exposure to the current level of dispute between the parents, and their resilience and vulnerability.
 - The nature and quality of the child's relationships

6. PROFESSIONAL JUDGEMENT

Using numbered paragraphs (6.1, 6.2, 6.3), provide an evaluation of the evidence regarding:

- How capable each of the child's parents, and any other person in relation to whom the court considers the question to be relevant, is of meeting the child's needs.
- Your opinion as to how the child's safety and well-being can best be promoted.

7. RECOMMENDATIONS

Using numbered paragraphs (7.1, 7.2, 7.3).

- Without repeating analysis elsewhere, provide short clear recommendations as to the future arrangements for the child/ren.
- Include any identified need for post proceedings support, and any agreed future actions by one or both parents.

4 continued

- Consider how the child will be informed of the outcome.
- If recommendation include that there be no further Surrey Childrens Services involvement, inform the court and parties that the family will be closed down, and that if further work or attendance at court is directed, then for the order to be served on the Local Authority, without delay.

In compiling this report, I have had regard in particular to the welfare checklist as required by Rule 16.20/16.33 Family Procedure Rules 2010 and I have applied a welfare checklist analysis to the facts of the case throughout.
